KENNA BIANCO

Kenna Bianco is a dance and performance professional hailing out of Pittsburgh, PA.

Known for her commanding stage presence and innate leadership qualities, Kenna has had the privilege of performing at various stages, screens, and events across the United States. Her notable appearances include "Queerly Beloved" with FireWall Dance Theater, and featuring in Duelle's music video, "Steppin." Kenna has had the opportunity to work with and learn from Elisa Alaio, Kirby Lee, and Nicole Varley - expanding her growth as a performer spanning over a decade. Additionally, Kenna is a cherished member of Isenberg Entertainment, having completed their 2025 Bridge the Gap: Pre-Professional Training Program in Pittsburgh, PA.

Outside of the studio, Kenna is a dedicated Elections Specialist, ensuring clerical, technical, and administrative duties related to voter registration, election preparation, and supporting her community are met with ease. Kenna eagerly anticipates future opportunities with grace and positivity!
